MEMORIAL DAY PROCLAMATION

THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE OF THE Independent Order of Odd Fellows OFFICE OF THE GRAND SIRE

To the Officers and Members of All Subordinate bodies of The Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Memories crowd fast upon the mind as the circling months bring us again to this memorable anniversary. Memorial Day calls us to stand again with uncovered heads beside the silent mounds, and above the sacred dust of our departed.

These times, when war's loud alarms are trying the souls of men as in a crucible of fire, there is hardly one in our membership who does not have some personal interest in the great events upon which the occasion it commemorates placed the seal of finality. For some of us who will observe this Memorial Day, that interest is tinged with profound sadness, and yet it is a proud sorrow that borders on the realms of joy. For since all must die, how noble and beautiful a thing it is to die for an undying cause and under the approving eye of history. So fell those for whom our hearts mourn, and history has no fairer or more inspiring page than that which records the splendor of their devotion and the completeness of their sacrifice.

There are many who have gone from our councils this past year; many who passed to a peaceful rest after a long life devoted to service in the cause of Odd Fellowship; many who have given their all upon the field of battle. The memories we hold for all of them bring us to a keener sense than we ever felt before of the proud privilege that is ours in being, in a sense, commissioned to expound to the world the real meaning of universal brotherhood. Those beloved brothers died well because they had lived well. Their names will long be held in loving memory because their lives were spent in doing good. They will be revered by us because they have brought to us in more solemn and serious example the duty that rests upon us, the living, by reason of the vows we have taken and the promises we have made, both to God and man. Memorial Day calls us not only in reverence to the shrine of the dead, but in enthusiasm to the service of our Order. What has been secured by sacrifice can be preserved by inspired obligation.

Our forebearers wisely determined that a day should be set aside by our Order to provide a time certain when our entire membership may, at the same moment so to speak, turn for a time from the distracting troubles and trials of this life and dwell in calm and serene thoughtfulness of those of our brethren who have passed beyond.

THEREFORE, I, D. D. Monroe, Grand Sire, in obedience to the General Laws of the Order, do hereby

PROCLAIM

Tuesday, the twelfth day of June, Nineteen hundred forty-five, being the second Tuesday in said month, the Memorial Day of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows; and I do hereby enjoin all subordinate bodies of the Order to meet upon said day, or upon Sundays preceding or following, and, by appropriate exercises, commemorate the virtues of our departed brethren. In further keeping with the action of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, expressed at its 1902 session, I recommend to the members of the Order the placing of some symbol or flag over the graves of Odd Fellows when decorating such graves upon the memorial day set apart for that purpose.

Also, it has become a proper and laudable custom, among Odd Fellows, to make Annual Pilgrimages to the Tombs of the Unknown Soldiers. This custom should be observed this year as in previous years. For members in the United States who can avail themselves of the privilege, the Odd Fellows of the District of Columbia, with the co-operation of the War Department, have arranged a Pilgrimage to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery, on Sunday, May 6th, 1945, between the hours of 3:00 and 4:00 o'clock, p.m.

Many thousands of the heroes of our Order who have kept the fires of brotherhood burning in our lodge-rooms by their regular attendance at our meetings and by their sublime devotion to the ideals of mutual helpfulness, have been called to that Field of Larger Usefulness. We cannot give that mighty roll-call in this writing, but you are urged to reverently mention them in your lodges. We can only name here the following additional prominent and representative members of the Order reported to us as officers, past officers, Grand Representatives and Past Grand Representatives of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, whose membership has been transferred to the Sovereign Lodge on High during the year preceding this Proclamation, each of whom we hold in loving memory:

ALBERTA

December 8, 1944, Charles Emery Noble,
Past Grand Representative, aged 71 years.

January 22, 1945, Walter J. Huntingford,
Past Grand Representative, aged 69 years.

In the world today we are enduring the Good Friday of suffering and grief. They sleep beneath the shadows of the clouds, careless alike of sunshine and of storm, each in the windowless palace of rest. Earth may run with other wars—they are at peace. They hover as a cloud above our Order. They will continue to inspire us with nobler motives and more sincere determination.

In each ceremony which will take place in pursuance of this Proclamation, there is the basis for renewed fervor, revived loyalty, and restored confidence in our great Order. We are the sharers of a great glory. I exhort all to again renew our resolution—renew it by the graves of our departed brethren and comrades—that this Order owes a eternal debt to all who have gone before—and that the debt can only be paid by fulfilling the ideal for which they lived, fought and died—the ideal of Universal Brotherhood which lies at the foundation of Odd Fellowship.

Issued at the City of Clayton, State of New Mexico, United States of America, this 27th day of March, A.D. 1945, and of the Order the one hundred and twenty-sixth year.

D. D. MONROE, Grand Sire.

ADDRESS BY REV. J. W. BAINBRIDGE AT HIGH RIVER CELEBRATION

I am privileged to celebrate with you the 126th Anniversary of the founding of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows on the North American continent. I am not an Odd Fellow, but I have a lot of relatives and friends who belong to your respective lodges; it has been my privilege from time to time to read some of your semi-public literature; and, being a member of a brother fraternity of yours, I know something of the organization, activities, successes and problems of your institution. Therefore, I would like to share with you a kind of family discussion, feeling that what I have to say about your organization applies almost equally and identically to my own lodge, and, indeed, in a measure also to the Christian church.

As a basis of our theme I would recall that the three links symbolic of your lodges stand for "Friendship, Brotherly Love and Truth", and the lesson, St. Luke 10:25 to 37, which we read from the volume of the Sacred Law, is one of the central scriptures of your Order. From this text, let us consider the real meaning of Odd Fellowship.

First, look at your regular liturgy, your systematic ritual, including your opening and closing ceremonies, and your degree work. Those exercises are fine; I doubt if they are excelled anywhere in their impressive beauty. But, how often it all stops with the carrying out of the ritual; only partially do we mean what we say, and we certainly fail to put the fine things expressed therein into action. Now, in this we expose ourselves to the serious danger of the familiar ritual, memorized and often repeated, benumbing our sensitiveness to its real meaning; thus it may actually do us harm. Therefore it behooves us to periodically and informally face up to the practical applications of the ritual and ceremonies provided for our help and constructive service.

Then, take this combination of the Three Links, with its mystical symbolic meaning. All three of these links have indefinable depths of meaning. But I would like to suggest that unless the big factor, which is the central teaching of the Parable of the Good Samaritan, namely sacrificial service, runs through each link and binds it with the other two, then we miss the real meaning of Odd Fellowship. Apparently, your lodges recognize this officially, because you have your Benevolent Fund, and your 63 comfortable homes for aged members and orphans. But do we apply this personally and locally?

Friendship is a grand attribute of human experience. Friendship as expressed in the local lodge meeting, when we visit neighboring lodges, when we attend annual provincial assembly, or as we meet members when we travel abroad, is lovely, and we need to develop it to our fullest extent along these lines. But the extra plea I want to make is on behalf of sick folk, the bereaved, and strangers. It means much to sick folk to have friends call on them, or write to them, when they are down. Bereaved folk appreciate it highly to discover that their friends really share their trouble with them, and it is an added joy for members from afar to feel at home in our midst. Friendship extended to the point of sacrificial service is truly a strong link.

Then, brotherly love has become such a common catch phrase that its real meaning has almost faded away. Real brotherly love is significant in that it does not look for alibis to excuse needed service, but rather goes to the limit. For example, when a brother has suffered a prolonged illness and his business is being threatened, the brotherhood of the lodge should do something practical about it and not be scared aside by tradition. Or, when a brother has died and his widow is in exceptional need, brotherly love should "go the extra mile" in meeting her necessities. Of course, no one should be deprived of his own independent responsibilities, but it is ours to help a brother bear his extra burdens to the point of sacrificial service.

When we come to this link called Truth, almost immediately we find ourselves out of our depth. Truth is another name for God. In some respects here is where the lodge excels. In the fellowship of the lodge and its symbolism we appreciate the underlying bond of infinite truth, which we call God, without any limiting draperies of theology or denominational definition. A simple expression of faith in God without any explanation is a strong bond of union of the lodge. I would like to suggest that here again lodge members could do a practical service by frankly sharing this great fundamental with our fellows at times of strenuous experience. When a lodge member goes through the valley of the shadow of death then is a time when some choice passages of the lodge ritual dealing with truth should be read to him. It will take sacrificial service to really do this, but the sharing of the greatest link of your Order—Truth—is surely the best service you can render.

You see, what I have been trying to say so far is, that if we would give a clarion sound of reality to our lodge life, let us interweave this essential factor of sacrificial service even among our lodge members.

Now, let me suggest that we go further and make a practical application of the lodge's noble principles into outside life. I appeal for this particularly because just now the world needs it. In passing let me personally thank you for local expressions of this from you in our own town and community. We need to recall that in the parable of the Good Samaritan the recipient of the service was a stranger. In no sense did the benefactor know him, and yet he played the part of a practical brother to him.

Let me here step aside to say a word to the brother or sister who has had some qualms about the lodge or the church having anything to do with war. Such a brother says: "I cannot conceive of the Good Samaritan having anything to do with war." Well, you cannot take that interpretation from this parable. Rather we must conclude that this Good Samaritan, who went to the limit in giving sacrificial service to a suffering stranger brother, had he been there at the time when the brigand bandits attacked him, would also have gone to the limit in trying to protect him and resisting and punishing the murderers. That is exactly what we have done so far in giving whole-hearted support to this war.

And now it is going to be ours to render similar service to our returning war personnel. I know you are preparing to help your own lodge members. But, on behalf of the Canadian Legion, I appeal to you to help our returning heroes. I know we can boast that our Canadian rehabilitation schemes are the best offered by any nation, but there is still much to be desired. I hope all of you read the address which Capt. Prowse gave to the Alberta legislature. So far, many of the schemes offered by our governments may seem to be all right on paper, but they are weak in practice; many of them are going to need amendment and sacrificial service to make them practical. Then these only apply to the returning personnel's immediate needs. So far, little has been done to provide for later adjustments.

Within a few weeks we are going to be called upon to vote. In the interest of friendship, brotherly love and truth, we must, even to the point of sacrificial service, see to it that we send men to Ottawa who will so plan our economics that every Canadian citizen will have adequate opportunity to live up to his best self. Moreover, we must help create public opinion which will give backing to the League of Nations which is now being established at San Francisco, so that it will give leadership to adequate life for every citizen not only in Canada, the British Empire, and the Allied countries, but in every country in the world.

With this in mind let me assure you that our Christian church, and the brother lodge to which I belong, join your Grand Sire in the closing statement of his anniversary proclamation.

What the Lodges Are Doing

GRAND MASTER SOUNDS SLOGAN, "FORWARD" FOR YEAR'S WORK

I should like to apply this message as one of May day suggestions at a time of year when we look forward to nature budding forth with its new life. Then, as members of this great fraternity, let us put forth every effort to increase the strength of our Order, that in years to follow there shall be a record of the work we are doing.

I am happy to inform you that a good percentage of our lodges are busy adding new strength to our Order. I appeal to each and every one of you not to overlook any reinstatements that may be available and encourage those members who have allowed themselves to become disinterested in our work of creating more friendly relations between one another, and carrying out the good work that previous leaders have established.

To those lodges that have not already observed the anniversary of our Order, please do so as it is very worthy of your full support and I trust that each and every lodge will be able to pass in a report to the editor of the Alberta Odd Fellow. By so doing, the rest of the lodges in this jurisdiction shall know about the good work that the various lodges are doing. I would like to compliment the lodges on the good work they have done and are continuing to carry out, and let us all strive to make this year a better one by applying the slogan "Forward."

Fraternally yours,

CHARLES FOX.

District Meeting Returns Officers

The district meeting of District No. 28 was held in Fort Lodge No. 14 on April 23. There was a good turn-out of local members and a large number of visitors from Edmonton and Lamont.

The Grand Master made this his first visit to Fort Lodge and had as his escort Bro. Woodard, Deputy Grand Master, James MacMasters, District Deputy Grand Master; Brothers Alf Brown, O. S. Martin, Arthur Young, P.G.M.'s, and Dave Wilson, P.G.P., Grand Scribe. Also a number of other brethren from Friendship Lodge No. 7, Edmonton; Edmonton No. 30, and Norwood No. 41. Brothers Reg. Godson, editor and publisher of the Alberta Odd Fellow, John Claney of No. 30, and James MacMasters kindly used their cars to convey the visitors from Edmonton. Bros. Bell and Shears brought the visitors from Lamont, for which we all say thank you.

After the close of the regular meeting of the lodge, the district meeting was held, with Bro. James MacMasters as District Deputy Grand Master and Dave Wilson, P.G.P., Grand Scribe, as secretary.

The reports showed that most of the lodges in the district were in fair shape considering that so many of our membership are in the uniform of our country.

Grand Master Bro. Charles Fox, of Crossfield, gave a most stirring address on the work of the Order and stressed five points which he thought would advance the lodges.

1. Direct your efforts toward seeing the lodge room is comfortable.
2. Strive to increase the membership.
3. Select officers who are willing to work.
4. Have an active social committee.
5. Welcome back our brothers who are in uniform—and be ready to give them advice and help.

Our Grand Master's address was good, sound advice, and will go a long way to making this world a better place to live in, if followed out.

There were short addresses by Bro. A. C. Woodard, Deputy Grand Master; Bro. James MacMasters, District Deputy Grand Master; Brothers Brown, Martin, P.G.M.'s, R. A. Godson and Bro. Bell, P.D.D.G.M.

The election of officers for the year 1945 returned Bro. James MacMasters of No. 30 as District Deputy Grand Master and Bro. Dave Wilson, P.G.P., and Grand Scribe as District Secretary. The time and place of the next meeting was left to the call of the chair.

After the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the sisters of Princess Rebekah Lodge No. 82 in their usual happy way. A hearty vote of thanks on behalf of the visitors was given by Bro. Arthur Young, P.G.M., in which all joined in by almost clearing the tables of the good things provided by the good sisters.

Degree Conferred On Five Members

Perhaps you have not seen it yet but when it does appear it would be well to read it carefully. The document referred to is the International Good Will Proclamation. In it you will find position and purpose of Odd Fellowship set forth in very clear and understandable language. The middle of the road position taken by the Order in community life is stressed.

Reading between the lines it is not difficult to see the present day outline. On one side is the union or organization devoted to the cause of the worker while on the other the tendency of the business or professional element to group themselves into business or service clubs. Both groups distrust one another, rightly or wrongly. The worker is quite definite about the aims of his organization. The professed aims of the clubs are community service. It was not always so, for in the years gone by both labor and management were members of the same fraternity. Perhaps at some time they were asked "what trade, profession or calling hast thou," but the answer never really made any difference. All that mattered was his standing in the opinion of his fellows. Close association tended to allay the suspicion that exists today.

Many members of Alberta No. 1, Calgary, attended Crescent No. 81 to witness the Initiatory Degree conferred on five members of Crossfield No. 42 by the degree team from Hillhurst No. 46. The Grand Master was very pleased to have five initiates in his home lodge, No. 42, and promised even better things to come.

Making his first official visit to Bow Valley No. 89, Cochrane, D.D.G.M. Bro.

Eddie Palfrey had the pleasure of seeing four members of that lodge receive the Initiatory Degree. It goes without saying that when any G.L. officers goes to Cochrane he has company, for it is only a short trip and the members of Bow Valley are wonderful hosts. Grand Warden Gordon went along too, but it was really the D.D.G.M.'s visit. Dramatic ability is not confined to city lodges. Presentation of the conductor's and chaplain's work by Bros. Bill Anderson and Charlie Grayson left little to be desired.

The degree work commenced at Crescent and Cochrane was further carried along when Crossfield, Cochrane and Hillhurst No. 46 visited this lodge on May 11, with ten or more candidates for the Second Degree. A general invitation was sent to all of the city lodges to attend and make it a big night in Odd Fellowship and incidentally an inspiration to the new members. It is expected that the candidates will receive the Third Degree at St. George No. 39 later in the month.

An old and well known member of this lodge, Bro. Harvey Aldous, passed away April 16, and was buried at his old home in Guelph Ontario. For many years our late brother had not been in the best of health and was of choice Outside Guardian. Those who passed through the outside door of No. 1 knew Harvey and his passing has made the anteroom not just the place it used to be.

The best wishes of this lodge go to Bro. Alf Brown, P.G.M., of Edmonton, on the occasion of becoming 83 years young. Bro. George Henderson, Grand Treasurer, and Bill Northover, Grand Secretary, conveyed the greetings of this lodge, Calgary Odd Fellowship in general and the Grand Lodge, but if they might have missed something, many happy returns, Alf.

A light appeared in the north-west sky the other evening but soon died down. Rumor has it that a certain lodge pianist took in too much territory when cleaning up his back yard. Aided by neighbors and members of Hillhurst No. 46, the conflagration was soon brought under control and the prairie will grow all the better from a little burning off. Harry will probably scalp the writer for mentioning this.

After holding out for upwards of twenty-five years, the distaff side of the Order has finally signed up a bachelor member of No. 1. Said member positively will draw the line on riding that goat sidesaddle.—C. W. Mc.

We want your Lodge news!

Crossfield Lodge Adds New Members

At the regular meeting of Crossfield Lodge No. 42, held on April 4, five applications for initiation were received and one brother was reinstated.

These candidates were given their Initiatory Degree by the degree staff of Hillhurst Lodge No. 46 under the direction of Degree Captain Bro. McMillan. This work was done in Crescent Lodge No. 81 before a well attended meeting. At this particular evening the Hillhurst brothers were paying a fraternal visit to Crescent No. 81. Several members of Crossfield Lodge No. 42 accompanied the Grand Master on his official visit to Crescent Lodge. Members of various Calgary lodges also were present.

On May 3, the Grand Master paid his official visit to Hillhurst Lodge No. 46, accompanied by the five new members who were given their First Degree by Hillhurst No. 46. Four candidates were also present from Cochrane to receive their First Degree, along with members of the Cochrane lodge.

Members of the anniversary committee of Crossfield Lodge are busy making plans for their anniversary service which will be held jointly with the Crossfield Rebekahs in the near future.—C.F.

Grand Master Fox Visits Millet Lodge

On Wednesday, April 23, Millet Lodge No. 145 had a very enthusiastic meeting, the occasion being the visit of G.M. Bro. Fox. Bro. Grapentine, P.G., was in the chair.

However, when things got going Bro. Fox, G.M., and Bro. Young, P.G.M., Bro. Alf Brown, P.G.M., Bro. Wilson, P.G.P., and last but not least, our worthy editor, Bro. Godson, were introduced in the usual manner. Oh, yes, I nearly forgot to mention our D.D.G.M. for District No. 25 was also present.

The secretary reported one brother had been transferred to Edmonton. We also had an application from a brother who wanted to be reinstated.

Our worthy editor then spoke a few words re our new paper and as a result the secretary sold quite a few subscriptions. If all lodges do as well according to size we will have a good paper, that is, if the secretary will send in the news.

Under "good of the Order," the N.G. called on Bro. Fox, G.M., for a talk and he delivered a very good message which was enjoyed by all.

Bro. Brown, P.G.M., also spoke, saying how he enjoyed a visit to Millet though he had been here off and on for the past 35 years.

The lodge was then closed and lunch was served by the committee, and, of course, we had some of "Vic's" good coffee and plenty to eat as usual.

When their appetites were satisfied and cigarettes passed around, Bro. Young, P.G.M., gave a brief outline of his visit to Sovereign Grand Lodge last summer.

Bro. West, one of our oldest brothers, spoke a few words about the old lodge and old times.

Acting N.G. Grapentine spoke a few words, defending our small lodge. He told how we were keeping things going until the boys come back and then Millet will go to town.

After singing God Save the King at 12:30 a.m., all went home, full and satisfied.

Mourn Passing of Veteran Member

Another link in the chain of Odd Fellowship of Three Hills I.O.O.F. No. 117 was removed when the late Bro. Gleason Seibert, a veteran jewelled member, passed away in the Trochu hospital after a brief illness.

Bro. G. Seibert, eldest of four sisters and five brothers, all of whom survive him, was born at Port Elgin, Ont., in 1876, and was nearing his sixty-ninth year. Shortly after coming to Alberta he joined this lodge, and last year was presented with the Veteran's Jewel.

A special memorial service was conducted in Knox United Church, on Friday, May 4. Rev. I. N. Hughson, Grand Chaplain, had charge of the service which was according to the rites of our Order. Members of the Sister Rebekah and subordinate lodges of District No. 17 attended in a body. After an impressive message was given, a solo was sung by Sister Mrs. May Scott.

At the graveside under the direction of Marshal Bro. W. T. How, P.N.G., the solemn ceremony was concluded. Brother C. Shea, P.N.G., acting N.G., assisted by the Chaplain, concluded the service. Many floral tributes and the large cortege bore eloquent testimony to the high esteem in which he was held.

The pall-bearers, were all members of the Order, Bros. Len Davidson, Ed. Foster, Alex Gordon, Geo. Keiver, Paul Klingell and Jack Smith. Sincerest sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

Joint Roll Call

By Ponoka Lodges

Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 33 and Ponoka I.O.O.F. Lodge No. 11 celebrated their 14th annual roll call on April 16. This was the 32nd anniversary of Hope Rebekah Lodge and the 41st anniversary of Ponoka Odd Fellows Lodge.

About 190 members and friends enjoyed a turkey banquet. The tables were beautifully decorated. The three letters, "F", "L" and "T", in pink on pedestals of green bearing the three links in gold, added to the beauty of the head table. The place cards were very appropriate, having on them the three links in gold.

Daughters of the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows served the banquet. They looked very gay in their aprons of pastel colors.

A program interspersed with the calling of the roll of both sisters and brothers was enjoyed. Nearly all of the members of both lodges responded to their names, either personally or by letter.

Letters were received by the I.O.O.F. lodge from England, the Belgian Front, South Pacific, Yukon Territory, Nova Scotia, Vancouver Island, New York and Oregon.

A minute's silence in memory of all departed members was observed. Special mention was made of Bro. W. J. Huntingford, P.G.M., and Bro. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Members and visitors were welcomed by Sister Newton, N.G. of Hope No. 33, and by Bro. Koleyak, N.G. of Ponoka No. 11.

Corsages were presented to Sister Pendleton, P.P. and first N.G. of Hope No. 33; to Sister Sayers, P.N.G., and Sister Merrill, P.N.G. of Hope No. 33, and to Sister Bowden of Esther No. 1 for their faithful attendance; to Sister Holban, P.N.G., our secretary of long standing; to Sister Granlund, P.N.G., our musician, and to Sister Goodman, the Vice President of the Rebekah Assembly and a charter member of our lodge.

A twenty-five year jewel was presented to Bro. J. Ramsay, P.G., and a P.G. collar to Bro. E. R. Thomas.

The program consisted of community singing, led by Bro. Bowker, P.G., a piano solo by Sister Granlund, address by Bro. N. W. Nelson, P.G., on "Odd Fellowship Today."

Bro. C. Fox, G.M., brought greetings from the Grand Lodge of Alberta, and Sister L. Goodman, V.P., extended the greetings from the Rebekah Assembly.

The Welsh Choir added selections to the program. The last were lines composed by Bro. Hughes and sung to the tune of "All Through the Night."

Brothers, Sisters, Friends assembled
On roll call night;
Once again we pledge our honor,
To seek the right;
We shall raise the standard higher,
Eleven and Thirty-three together,
Till the world can feel the power
Of Friendship's might.
The Odd Fellows of Ponoka
Are true and tried;
And our sisters, staunch Rebekahs,
Are by our side.
We shall face the future boldly,
Each for all—a grand assembly;
Never faltering in our duty,
What e'er betide.

The flowers from the banquet table were given to Sister Hickmore, P.N.G., and to Mrs. Jones, who were unable to attend on account of ill health.

All who attended expressed their appreciation to the chairman, Bro. Hickmore, P.G.P., to the committee and workers who had planned such a successful evening. And so another Roll Call has come and gone, another year has passed. Now we are looking forward to a bigger and better Roll Call in 1946. We sincerely wish that our brothers who are now serving in the armed forces will then be with us to answer personally.

Members met at the home of Sister Roberts, P.N.G., on April 9th, for a farewell party for Sister Paterson, P.D.D.P., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. Finkle. The contests were won by Sister Holben, P.N.G., and Sister Koleyak, P.N.G. After a dainty lunch, Sister Cline, P.N.G., on behalf of the lodge, presented Sister Paterson with a leather-covered book as a remembrance from the lodge. Sister Paterson has returned to her home in Ontario.

Sister E. Hickmore, P.N.G., who recently underwent an operation in the Royal Alexandra hospital, Edmonton, is now at home and progressing favorably.

Some of the Rebekahs joined with members of other organizations in helping Sister Bowden of Esther No. 1 celebrate her 85th birthday on April 26. A dainty tea was served. Sister Bowden received many gifts and cards from her many friends.

The third group served tea at the Red Cross rooms. Twenty dollars were turned into the Red Cross funds.

Some of our members helped at the Blood-Donor's Clinic. Two donated blood.

Mark Anniversary By Sunday Service

Following the record-breaking attendance and candidates initiated at Sunnyslope last month, the good work was continued at Three Hills, Acme and Beiseker, when the First, Second and Third Degrees were conferred on the newly initiated. Representatives of all the lodges—Sunnyslope, Three Hills, Acme and Beiseker, and a degree team consisting mostly of Acme officers, proved themselves masters in the art of dramatizing the symbols of the three links—Friendship, Love and Truth—to a higher degree of efficiency and impressiveness.

The enthusiasm continued growing until the Anniversary Sunday service was arranged. To commemorate the 126th birthday of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, it was decided that the district accept Acme's kind invitation to hold the service in Acme United Church. Grand Lodge officers, Bro. F. Lount, P.G.M., of Beiseker, Bro. Claude Webb, P.D.D.G.M., and Bro. E. Redding, D.D.G.M., were present.

The Grand Chaplain, Rev. I. N. Hugson of Three Hills Lodge No. 112, gave an inspirational address on "World Neighbors" which was appreciatively received. Including a splendid representation of the Sisters of the Rebekah lodges, over fifty members joined in worshipping together, singing the grand old hymns that warm one's heart and imbues that strength of heart and mind to indeed carry out the principles of Odd Fellowship in a very practical manner in our everyday life.

The writer regrets that owing to the limited time for this service, no opportunity was allowed for addresses and remarks to be given when the members returned to the lodge room. It is to be hoped that on the next occasion a social hour of fellowship among the sisters may be arranged.

Sincere thanks are tendered to the members of Acme Lodge, who were the hosts on this occasion and to the church board and their organist, Mrs. Greenway, for the use of the church and leading the service in praise. It surely was a fitting climax for the deep interest manifested among all the brothers. May the good work continue to grow.

Woman thinks about her sins,
Until they seem like double.
But MAN! He just forgives himself,
And saves the Lord the trouble.

Be a booster for Odd Fellowship.

Veteran Members' Picture Displayed

Before starting on a delayed attempt to give the Alberta Odd Fellow the news from the south-western corner of the province, I must apologize for not writing before to congratulate the editor on the change in the issue of the sole organ of Odd Fellowship for the province of Alberta. The many noticeable changes are the improved print, and the complete directory of the different lodges in the province; also the messages from the Grand Officers and Rebekahs throughout the province. I can assure you, Mr. Editor, that we in the south are well pleased, and hope that as time goes on, we will be worthy of better support to you.

One evening last month, our lodge was visited by five brothers, representing two hundred and fifty years of Odd Fellowship, namely, Bro. J. H. Collier, P.G., 60-year Jewel; Bro. Oswald Beeton, 55-year Jewel; Bro. Michael (Mike) Muir, 50-year Jewel; Bro. Walter V. Sanders, of Jubilee Lodge, Detroit, Mich., 45-year Jewel, and Sing Cope, P.G., 40-year Jewel. The object of the five brothers was not only a special visit to the lodge, but to present an enlarged photograph of the above mentioned members. The presentation speech was very ably given by Bro. Collier, who outlined the growth of Odd Fellowship for sixty years. He closed by hoping we would all be spared to see many more years in Odd Fellowship.

Bro. L. R. Leveque, the Noble Grand, made the reply. He said:

Brothers Collier, Beeton, Muir, Sanders and Cope. On behalf of Medicine Hat Lodge No. 3, I wish to thank you for this token of remembrance that you are presenting us tonight. I can assure you that it will be accorded a place of honor on the walls of the lodge, and that we will cherish it for many years to come. Brothers, it is a pleasure and an honor to have with us tonight these veterans of Odd Fellowship. You have seen the Order rise throughout all these years, spreading the grand principles for which the organization stands. You have given the Order many years of faithful service, and we know that with advancing years you cannot always attend our meetings, yet we are encouraged by your prayers and good wishes, and knowledge that you have the welfare of the Order at heart. You became members at a time when the name of Odd Fellows was little known in our part of the country, but the zeal with which you were imbued had much to do with the progress of the Order.

There is nothing mysterious in the name of Odd Fellows. It is but the practical application of the lessons learned at our mother's knee, proclaimed by the Son of Nazareth and known to the religion of the world. What is Odd Fellowship if it is not a spiritual ideal wrought into the visible life of our day? What is Brotherhood if it does not teach all the name implies? What is Fraternity, if it does not reach the soul of man? "He was my brother and friends," is more than an idle phrase. It carries more than material service. It is alive with spiritual meaning.

Odd Fellowship has won the praise of those who know it. It has stood beside the bedside of the sick, strewn flowers above the sleeping dead, protected the family and educated the orphan. The land in which we live is better because of Odd Fellowship, and Medicine Hat Lodge No. 3 is proud of having brothers of your age who have so well upheld the teachings of our Order, and we pray that you will be spared to be with us for many years to come.

Bro. Collier then presented the photograph to the Noble Grand, who hung it on the wall of Medicine Hat Lodge No. 3 as a living memory of the work of Odd Fellowship.

The last few meetings have been well attended, as the lodge has started on getting in new members, having taken in four by initiation and four by reinstatement. As time goes on we expect to greatly increase our membership, and show a good gain before the end of the year.

We are looking forward to a visit from our interprovincial brothers from Maple Creek, as they want to confer the Third Degree on our candidates, and let me say now that they have a team that can't be beaten.—S.C.

High River Lodge Has Special Service

On Sunday evening, April 29, High River Lodge No. 22, Harmony Rebekah Lodge No. 11, and Timleck Encampment No. 16 observed the 126th anniversary of the founding of the Order by attendance at a special service held in the United Church, High River. There were also visiting brothers and sisters from Blackie, Cayley and Nanton—in all over 90 members of the Order were present. Also, a large number of members of the regular church congregation joined with us in this service, thus filling the church.

The service was conducted by Rev. J. W. Bainbridge, minister of the Church, and the choir of the church led in the music. In an anthem "Hear me when I call," Miss Ruth Bainbridge was soloist, with Miss D. Powell at the organ.

The members of the lodges represented were deeply impressed with the music and the very inspirational message given by Mr. Bainbridge. So impressed and appreciative were our brothers and sisters that they said a copy of the address by the minister should be published in the "Alberta Odd Fellow."—Wm. B. Cope.

Hillhurst Lodge to Stage Big Picnic

The Samaritans have again been busy and we took in three new Neophytes at our meeting in April. It costs us quite a feed bill for our goat though as he is kept pretty busy. We had decided at our executive meeting to have some form of entertainment other than degree work, but the applications keep coming in. The degree was really fun and the boys are working on some new wrinkles to put more pep into it, although some of the victims think there is enough of it now.

Heap Big Chief Dauncey and his squaw Showers put on a demonstration on how to put out a fire for the benefit of Sam Shelly, our new fire chief in Calgary. When Sam Shelly got through laughing and wiped the tears from his eyes he said in all the years he had been with the fire department he had never seen a fire put out that way.

The boys are cooking up a big picnic to be held in the mountains to the west some time in the summer, if we ever get any. It is being said around here in the sunny south that the climate is becoming more like a northern city all the time where they only get about a week's summer in the year.

Our genial Sam Van Buren has returned, looking hale and hearty, from the west coast and points south. He is sure a great Odd Fellow, and I think visits a lodge every night when he is away from home. He belongs to all branches of the Order except, perhaps, the Rebekahs, (although he's a great laides' man) and seems to get to all the meetings of the Order in Vancouver and elsewhere.

Bro. F. W. Hodges, the hard-working correspondent and recording secretary of Hillhurst Lodge No. 46, completed twenty-five years of Odd Fellowship last month. The members of the lodge presented him with a twenty-five year Jewel at their annual roll call and banquet. Brother Hodges is not a Samaritan, (although he'd make a darn good one), but I thought I'd mention it as he's a bit modest. I've seen quite a few jewels presented but none more deserving, as Bro. Hodges is a real worker and really has Odd Fellowship at heart, I hope to see him get his 50-year jewel as well.

I'm just wondering if Sam McGaw isn't a little afraid of the new editor as he doesn't seem to be up to his old form in reporting for No. 1. However, maybe he'd been out late the night before and was a little woozy. Here's hoping he'll be back in his old stride for the June publication.

The executive held a meeting on May 9, to do the routine work of the Sanctorum. These meetings are held to relieve the Sanctorum of discussion and bills, etc., so we have more time for fun and frolic at our regular meetings.—D. F. Stewart.

Minburn Welcomes Dep. Grand Master

Birch lodge was trying to put one over us on April 6th when they had as their guest the Deputy Grand Master, Brother Woodard. But he turned the tables on them when he appeared at Minburn Lodge No. 74, on April 18th.

It is surprising how many of the members will leave the comforts of home when there is something doing at lodge. All of our resident members turned out but two—these two when the roll was called, were found to have returned to their younger days and lo and behold they had the mumps in truly youngster style. Another of our members was standing on top of the world, all because his good wife had presented him with a bouncing baby boy. Some day we hope he will follow in the footsteps of his Dad and will be District Deputy Grand Master of one of our districts. Best of wishes, Bro. and Sister D. R. Myers.

We thank the members of Birch Lake No. 63 for turning out in large numbers and coming to our help as it was hoped we would have on two First Degrees, but, the important part of our degree team had swollen necks (not heads) and could not be there. Nevertheless, we will have the degrees on at our next meeting and Minburn will be welcome members of our staff.

Brother Woodard spoke to us for a few minutes before lodge closed and then the new members and one other who is coming back into the lodge after having dropped out for a while, were invited to hear Brother Woodard's words of encouragement and advice on the principles of our grand

Order and the spot he hopes we will hold in this world after the clouds of war have passed, and our boys are home again. Several of our boys were remembered at this meeting. The lodge is taking part in other plans formed in the district to remember all the boys of our district who are serving in this war. Bro. Frank Larcombe is the member on this important committee.

If any of the Grand Lodge officers are in this district or can make a trip to us, we will welcome them. They can not come too often as it is the only touch we have with the outside world.

Regular Meeting of Veteran Assn.

With 22 members present, the 38th regular meeting of the Veteran Odd Fellowship of Alberta and Northern Alberta was held in the I.O.O.F. Hall, Edmonton, on April 28. Chief Veteran Andy Browning was in the chair.

An application was read from Bro. F. B. Day, and was accepted. Necessary button will be obtained by the secretary and Bro. Day will be notified.

Under the good of the order, the Chief Veteran called on P.C.V. George Henderson, P.G.M., Grand Treasurer, and Veteran A. William Northover, Grand Secretary, of Calgary. Each gave words of encouragement and advice which were enjoyed by all.

P.C.V.D. Wilson suggested that the July meeting take the form of an outside meeting and that the ladies be invited to attend. The meeting approved the suggestion.

The meeting closed with prayers by the chaplain, after which the social committee served refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed by all.

Subordinate Lodge Stages Fine Program

Again the Odd Fellows of Subordinate Lodge No. 5, Pincher Creek, outdid themselves in their entertainment of their wives, fraternal sisters and many friends on Wednesday, evening April 11th, in Framac Hall.

The varied program with home and visiting talent was one of the best, the dance with the Ambassadors Orchestra in attendance and the grand lunch were par excellence and was topped with the solicitous attention of the hosts in seeing that no guest was overlooked. Brother A. L. Freebairn, chairman, welcomed the guests and put the right touch in when he announced the password for the evening "Friendship."

The program consisted of solos by Brother E. Evans of Pincher Station; several tap dancing numbers by the misses Mona Allred and Dora Woolf, toe dancing by Miss May Brewerton—all dances beautiful and appropriately costumed, with Mrs. Thelma Smith accompanist, all of Cardston; the local Triad group—Miss J. Fraser, Mrs. P. Pearson, Miss M. Upton, Mrs. W. Ruth-erford and Miss F. Cornyn; Mrs. L. Purkis accompanying. A skit by Brothers Upton and Duffield; vocal solos by Brother A. B. MacMurdo; violin solos by Mrs. Laura Freebairn Christophersen, A.T.C.M., including a response to a determined applause for a second encore—Mrs. Freebairn accompanying; vocal solos by Mr. Rulon Leavitt of Cardston, accompanied by his son, Douglas Leavitt.

Mr. Freebairn also welcomed the Grand Master of the province, C. Fox of Carstairs, and his district deputy, Brother Wheeler of Blairmore, and Brother Jim Cousens, P.G.M., of Bellevue.

Dancing and supper completed the evening.—Pincher Creek Echo.

Grand Rally Held Birch Lake Lodge

On April 6, a grand rally of the members of Birch Lake Lodge No. 63 gathered to honor our Deputy Grand Master, Bro. Alfred C. Woodard, of Edmonton.

Almost all of the members left in the Innisfree district were on hand along with a goodly bunch from Minburn. Lunch was served and Bro. Woodard gave us a real "pep" talk on the teachings of Odd Fellowship which will not soon be forgotten.

It is a real treat for a small lodge out in the country to have a visitor drop in and say a word of cheer, give a clasp of the hand and a push along to brighter days.

Several of our members are in England and they are not forgotten by us, even though we appear to be slack in our meetings.

However, we are doing our best to carry on till the boys come home and that will be the day of rejoicing.

So come again, Grand Lodge officers, and anyone else. Let us know a few hours beforehand and we will have a lunch ready and will welcome you. You can not come too often.

Keep Up News Reports

Our appeal to the various lodges to send in reports of their activities for publication in the Alberta Odd Fellow has met with a good response. The results have been even better than anticipated.

The Editor takes this means of expressing appreciation and voices the hope that the good work will continue. If the volume is increased steadily, that means that your publication will be just that much better and that much more newsworthy.

Nevertheless, it appears that a good many lodges still have not found it possible to give these news reports. It is to be hoped that they will be heard from from now on. That is what is needed for the long pull to make the Alberta Odd Fellow a grand success.

See to it that these reports are furnished regularly for publication. Individual members will look forward to seeing the reports, not only of their own lodge but of other lodges.

Here's another point. When there is something that is good material concerning lodge doings, send it along to the Alberta Odd Fellow. Do not wait for an accumulation of events to report.

Owing to wartime difficulties and handicaps, all of us are obliged to face emergent situations. Consequently it would help if news items from lodges are sent along from time to time if that is convenient. It would be helpful in the production of the periodical.

Keep up the good work. Keep the news items coming.

R. A. GODSON.

Has 83rd Birthday Still Going Strong

Alf Brown, P.G.M. of the I.O.O.F. of Alberta, and a resident of Edmonton, celebrated his 83rd birthday on April 30. He has been a member of the Order for 62 consecutive years.

Bro. Brown wishes to express through the medium of the Alberta Odd Fellow, his deep appreciation of the many beautiful letters, birthday cards and best wishes that he received on the occasion of his birthday.

He is a member of all branches of the Order and despite his advanced age is still "going strong."

OUR OPPORTUNITY

Today, Odd Fellows and Rebekahs have a great opportunity to minister to a sick and stricken world. On every hand are those who are in need of cheer and comfort. We should be quick in our ministrations of mercy, "not passing by on the other side, but hastening to relieve." We must not close our ears to the calls of humanity.

Memorial Service For U.S. President

Respects to the late President Roosevelt, a loyal I.O.O.F. member, were paid by Watrous Lodge No. 63 when 18 members paraded to a memorial service held at the United Church on April 15. This was a good turnout considering the short notice in the arrangements. A fine sermon was given by Rev. G. H. Glover.

April 17 was featured by the initiatory degree being conferred on four candidates. The work was well put on, and received by the new candidates in a favorable manner. This brings the total new memberships to nine since January 1, a record we are proud of at this time. Our new members are gradually being taken in on degree work, with actual parts or understudy parts. We are proud of all our degree teams, and challenge any lodges in our vicinity to go us one better.

We were glad to welcome visitors from Simpson, Bros. Frihagen, Richards and Norum. Each spoke briefly on the Order. We hope to have them back again in the near future.

Once all work is completed our lodge room will be the envy of all its members. It has been repainted in lighter colors, making a decided improvement. The anteroom has been enlarged, a new regalia cupboard made in the lodge room proper, and the hallway has been remodelled. A complete paint job on all makes our interior bright and cheery, and very welcome to us on lodge nights. Voluntary labor was supplied by our members which reduced the cost a great deal. The only worry now is if we increase our membership too greatly we will have to enlarge the lodge room.

The first degree was presented to our newly initiated brothers, namely, Bros. H. R. Busse, E. D. Maddin, E. J. Stacey and M. Shafer. A full team was able to put over this degree in a very able manner. It was gratifying to our members to hear the examination of our candidates presented in a grand manner, and special mention should be made of Bro. Busse for his delivery of the obligation. It was a swell job, and would put many of our old members to shame. We trust they will continue to show the same enthusiasm for the coming degrees.

A social evening for the members and their wives is being planned for later on in May.—R. E. Preston.

We want your Lodge news!

Encampment and Patriarchs Militant

GRAND PATRIARCH APPEALS FOR BUMPER ANNUAL RALLY

Full Program Afternoon and Evening Will Be Staged at Lethbridge on May 24; Conferring of Degrees to Commence at 2:00 p.m.

To Calgary Encampment and all Subordinate Encampments south of Calgary, I ask your co-operation the month of May. A Grand Rally such as was held at High River just over a year ago will be held in Lethbridge on May 24, both afternoon and evening. All the degrees will be conferred starting at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and I appeal to all three of our outside Encampments to bring with them all the candidates they have or will have by then.

Last year a total of thirty-one candidates were accepted and given their degrees in one class. That was an all-time record in the Encampment Branch of our order, but that is no reason why that record can not at least be equalled this year.

Lethbridge Encampment No. 7 will do their best, as always, but as I pointed out last month, George cannot do it all alone. We want your help. That means Calgary No. 1, Timleck No. 16 and Aram No. 15. All Patriarchs from outside points who have not been already informed of this rally are requested to be present at this meeting and let us all endeavor to set up another record in our Encampment Branch. Again asking for your co-operation in making May 24, 1945, a banner day.

Sincerely and fraternally,

WM. E. BLAIR,
Lethbridge.

Patriarchs Plan Lethbridge Visit

I guess that I'm a kind of dual personality, but thought I'd do a little reporting for Alberta Encampment No. 1 as well.

The Patriarchs are contemplating a visit to Lethbridge Encampment on May 24, where the three degrees are to be conferred. We have three or four applications, and High River and Lethbridge, I believe, have some as well. A number of years ago we journeyed to Lethbridge and the three degrees were conferred. The Lethbridge boys are real hosts.

Patriarchal Odd Fellowship is really picking up, in the province of Alberta at least, and is in for a real come-back as it was slipping a little the past few years.

At our meeting of May 9, we balloted on seven applications, and may have two or three more before the 24th of May. We also held a degree practice under the able direction of Doc Chappell.

We are sorry to report that Pat. Barnes, our Senior Warden, is leaving the city and has handed in his resignation. Billy has been a real hard worker in Patriarchal Odd Fellowship and we wish him every success in his new venture.—D.F.S.

First Award Has Come to Alberta

The first General Commanding Award to come to Alberta was presented to Major C. W. McGaw, Department Commander, by Major C. R. Sharman, Aide to the General Commanding, at the April meeting of Canton Calgary No. 2 Patriarchs Militant. This award was granted to Department Commanders whose Department made a net gain in 1944. The award will be continued from January 1, 1945 to Sept. 1, 1945, when grants will be made to the Officers or Chevaliers securing the largest and second largest number of applications between the above dates. It is hoped that one or more awards will come to Alberta as a reward for good work in 1945.

At the same meeting the Canton assisted the Auxiliary in conferring their degree on Lady Blair, of Lethbridge. The degree is very colorful and impressive and it was the first time that some of the newer Chevaliers had either the opportunity to take part or witness it.

The Calgary Canton is very interested in the Big Degree Rally being held by Lethbridge Encampment No. 2 on May 24. The more members of the Encampment, the more prospective members for the Canton. The arrangements so far call for High River, Calgary and Lethbridge to each confer one degree. This, together with the well known hospitality of the southern city, should go a long way toward making a day of it.

From all reports the staid old province of Ontario is really doing something about the Military Branch. Royal City Canton No. 13 held its first anniversary in Guelph with, from as near as we can make out, a membership of around fifty. Not a bad membership for the first year. Furthermore, according to the program, everyone from the mayor down took part in the proceedings, which lasted all day Saturday and Sunday. Sometimes one wonders if we westerners are the go-getters we like to believe ourselves to be. If the activities were confined to Guelph alone there might be some doubt about it, but on the contrary, the whole Department is busy. Until someone can prove it otherwise, it is "hats off to Ontario."

Edmonton Lodges Will Hold Service

Members of districts 28 and 29 will commemorate the 126th anniversary of the founding of the Order of Odd Fellows by attending a divine service in the I.O.O.F. Temple, at 95th St. and 112th Ave., Edmonton, at 3:00 p.m., Sunday, June 3. Rev. A. R. Schrag, B.D., of Eastwood United Church, will give the address. Music will be supplied by the church choir.

A cordial invitation is extended to all lodges adjacent to Edmonton to attend.

ADVERTISE YOUR LODGE

Your Lodge ad in the Lodge Directory page signifies progressiveness and is a mark of respect to your chief officers.

REBEKAH ACTIVITIES

Harmony Rebekah Lodge Activities

From Harmony Rebekah Lodge No. 11, High River.

As April passes with eight meetings and three initiations with eight new lodge members, Sister Irvine, P.N.G., made a request that we make a report of our activity in lodge work starting from the first of this year. Her request had the support of all lodge members.

The monthly meetings are well attended, all office bearers and committees working together. At our March meeting we enjoyed a visit by Sister Hanson, D.D.P., and she was installed by Sister A. Miller, P.N.G., of our lodge. The social committee put on a delightful birthday party for members who had birthdays during the months of January, February and March, with lots of fun and gaiety. One big event of the evening was the ice cream contest—two people having spoons tied together by eight inches of cord. The one who finished her ice cream first received a prize.

The prize winners were Sister McIvride and Bro. Bill Irvine.

In February it was decided to put on a Valentine dance, the proceeds to go to the High River Smokes Fund comforts for boys overseas. Sister Gordon was convenor and the committee decided the dance should be held in High River town hall. The hall was beautifully decorated by our young Rebekahs. The dance was a success. There was good music and a most enjoyable evening resulted.

The Rebekahs served lunch at midnight. The proceeds were gratifying, $113.50 being turned over to the Smokes Fund.

We also have a get-together gathering each week. Members meet at different homes for Red Cross work and a social afternoon. A small collection is taken, which goes to the flower fund and social work of the lodge. Refreshments are always served at these gatherings.

Harmony Rebekah Lodge sustained a loss in the death of Sister Euphemia McDonald, P.N.G., who passed away at the home of her daughter, Sister K. Snodgrass, P.N.G., on April 15. Sister McDonald was 83 years old. She was a charter member of Harmony Rebekah Lodge No. 11.

The McDonald family moved to High River in 1901. Before coming to High River, Sister McDonald was a member of the Rebekah Lodge in Anaconda, Montana, and has been a member of the order for 54 years. She was also in earlier years an active member and leader in the U.F.W.A., being the first president. She had been keenly interested in lodge work and district affairs in general, despite her advancing years. The sympathies of members of the lodge go out to Sister Kate McDonald in the loss of her mother. We pray earnestly that in this time of trial and tribulation she may be comforted with the hope that the sleep of the just is blessed.—E.C.

Jewel Rebekahs Hold Initiation

At the regular meeting of Jewel Rebekah Lodge No. 25, I.O.O.F., on May 3rd at Edmonton, an initiation of two members from Onward Rebekah Lodge No. 113, of Lamont, was held. The new members are Mrs. Alice Ross and Mrs. Louise Johnston.

After the meeting lunch was served by the degree team of "Jewel."

On Monday evening, May 7, the officers and members of Jewel No. 25 entertained Norwood Lodge No. 41, I.O.O.F., after their regular meeting. The party was held to show Jewel's appreciation for many kindnesses received from No. 41 during the past year or two, when it has been impossible to obtain the hall for special practices. Norwood Lodge very kindly permitted the Jewels to use the hall after several of their meetings.

Following a short sing-song with Sis. Bomerlan, P.N.G., at the piano, those present settled down to "Bingo." The sisters must have been more alert, or perhaps they are more accustomed to playing Bingo; in any case, they took more than their share of the prizes, which inspired Bro. A. D. Campbell, P.G.M., to compose and recite the following impromptu verse:

The ladies have entertained us well.

They filled us with surprises;

And yet I think we must admit

They've taken most of the prizes.

Lunch was served by the Jewels, and Bro. Wm. Gerrie, N.G. of No. 41, thanked the sisters for the entertainment.

Lougheed Lodge Has Busy Program

Though I am slow in sending these few lines, don't assume we have been asleep at lodge work. On February 27, we initiated into our membership Miss Marjorie Lawrence and Miss Joyce Skoberg. To make it more effective the mothers of these young ladies escorted them around the room as Conductor and Warden.

On March 13 we received Mrs. Florence Wright into the lodge by reinitiation statement, and also Miss Hazel Anderson by initiation.

On March 15, Sister Ethel Mae Holton was married to Sgt. Joseph Swink, and is now residing at 9562 10th Ave., Apt. 15, Edmonton. It would be very nice if some of the Edmonton sisters would call on her.

On April 10, after lodge, we held a joint social evening together with Odd Fellows Lodge No. 121. There was a very small turn out, but those present enjoyed themselves with cards, dancing and sing songs. A feature was the song contest by six men, all singing a different song at the same time. What a racket! We have wonderful talent among our brothers, eh? We should have these get-togethers more often, so how about it fellows?

The evening was topped off with a doing justice to the lunch provided by the Rebekahs.

Our very best wishes to the new editor and we wish him all success.—C.W.

District Meeting To Be Held May 15

The regular meeting of Sunbeam Rebekah Lodge No. 112, Millet, was held April 17th, with a good turn-out. Several members were present who had been unable to attend lodge for quite a while.

Two applications for membership were read, and plans were made for the district meeting to be held in Millet on May 15.

After lodge a social hour was spent and a dainty lunch enjoyed by all, in honor of our member, Sister Mildred Vining, who is leaving Millet. She was presented with a gift and best wishes from the members for happiness in her new home.—A.W.

President to Visit Rebekahs at Alix

Three applications for membership were received at the last meeting of Rebekah Lodge No. 38, at Alix.

Members also heard the announcement that the President of the Rebekah Assembly, Sister Minnie Gilkes of Calgary, will visit the lodge on May 28. It is expected that the Rebekah degree will be conferred on the three applicants for membership on this occasion.

The lodge sponsored a play titled "Don't Be Bashful," which was presented on April 17 and 18. A good sum was realized which will help with the running expenses of the lodge. A determination has been voted for the Red Cross society.

A veteran's gavel was received from the assembly secretary. Later on it will be presented to the sister who is to receive it.

Tribute Is Paid to Late U.S. President

On April 23, members of Esther Rebekah Lodge No. 1 paid tribute to the memory of the late President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, by observing one minute's silence. He was a great humanitarian who left his footprints on the sands of time.

Sister Sheffield, P.N.G., tendered her resignation as recording secretary. Owing to so many other activities she finds it is impossible to continue in this office. After the lodge accepted her resignation, Sister W. Blight, P.D.D.P., was elected by acclamation for the office of recording secretary, and was duly installed under the direction of Sister Jean Lamb, D.D.P., Sister Gadsby, P.N.G., Deputy Marshal of Anoka No. 21, and Sister Reta Ferguson, P.N.G., Naomi No. 12.

During Sister Blight's absence at Victoria, B.C., for a month's vacation, the lodge appointed Sister H. Desson, P.N.G., to fill temporarily the office of recording secretary.

Sister Jean Lamb, D.D.P., was the recipient of a beautiful corsage of pink roses from the Noble Grand.

This modest gift of roses
Will quickly fade, we know;
But the memory of your service,
With each year will live and grow.
We extend a hearty welcome,
A greeting most sincere;
Hoping we will meet together
For many a coming year.

When Sister Lamb was asked by the Noble Grand for a few words, she responded by giving the members a splendid address, and we regret that there were not more of our members present to hear her.

On April 30, Esther Lodge No. 1 held a successful double Military whist party in the I.O.O.F. Temple, under the able convenership of Sister Emily Godfrey. There were nineteen tables in play. The Noble Grand presented four first prizes to the winners, and four consolation prizes to the losers. Later refreshments were enjoyed in the lunch room. The proceeds will be used for war work.—Z.T.D.

Wainwright Lodge Now on Honor Roll

As this is the first contribution from Adeline Rebekah Lodge No. 54, Wainwright, for some time, we wish first of all to convey our sincere compliments to the new editor and publisher on his improved publication and to wish him every success with the Alberta Odd Fellow for the future.

The members of Adeline Rebekah Lodge held a very successful social evening on March 29, when they entertained the brothers of Wainwright Lodge No. 45 and their friends, as well as brothers and sisters from the Irma district. Evenings such as this do much to promote the spirit of Odd Fellowship among the members.

At the regular meeting on April 5, the degree was very capably conferred on three new members, Sisters K. Greer, L. Stuart and H. Torrance. The lodge was pleased to welcome Sister L. Morrison and her mother, Mrs. E. Morrison, back at this meeting. Sister Morrison had been in the east for some time. Sister D. Peacock was appointed as correspondent to the Alberta Odd Fellow from the lodge.

At the meeting on April 19, a ballot was taken on two prospective members and the degree team under the guidance of Sister M. Carsell is again busy preparing to confer the degree. Sister M. Forrest, D.D.P., read her commission at this meeting and was presented to the lodge by Past Grand Sister N. Huntingford and Sister E. Wilbraham.

We are pleased to report that our lodge has been placed on the A.R.A. Honor Roll for this year and are hoping this will prove an incentive to the members to work harder for Odd Fellowship during 1945.

Be a booster for Odd Fellowship.

Milo Rebekahs Are Reorganized

Excellent success attended the reorganization of the Roseleaf Rebekah Lodge No. 109 of Milo. The President of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, Mrs. Gilkes of Calgary, was in attendance and the District Deputy President, Mrs. E. Bowie of Vulcan, installed the officers. The degree team of Vulcan Rebekah Lodge put on the degree and initiated the new members.

Mrs. Conrad Peterson was elected Noble Grand and Mrs. Gordon Ivers, Vice Grand. Mrs. Donald McCord was appointed secretary and Mrs. C. L. Beckner, treasurer.

Thirteen new members were initiated and with the addition of former members brought the strength of the lodge to eighteen. The I.O.O.F. lodge has enjoyed a large increase in membership during the past two years and both lodges are in excellent shape. In a little place a great deal of the interest and diversion in the community should come from the members of the community themselves and the community should gain much from the added interest in these organizations.

Hold Anniversary Service at Hanna

Anniversary services were held in the United Church, Hanna, Sunday, April 29th, when members of the Hanna Lodge Independent Order of Odd Fellows attended. The services marked the 126th anniversary of the founding of the Order. The services commenced at 7:30, and members of the local lodge and visitors assembled at the lodge rooms in the Fleming Hall at 7 p.m.—The Hanna Herald.

Maytime Tea Is Planned by Lodge

Planned by the war service unit of Unity Rebekah Lodge No. 26 for Wednesday, May 30, from 3:00 until 6:00 o'clock, a Maytime tea will be held at the home of the Noble Grand, Sister Olive Graham, 10650 79th Avenue.

Featured at the tea will be an "Apron Bar" where there will be for sale many gay and colorful aprons in all styles and sizes.

We solicit the support of all sister lodges and friends in making this tea a success. The convener is Mrs. J. S. Henderson.

President to Make An Official Visit

During the past three months a very delightful and informal series of whist parties have been held following the regular meeting of Unity Rebekah Lodge No. 26, Edmonton. Among the hostesses have been Sisters Self, Had-dow, Kidney, Couch, Fowler and Foster.

Our next meeting May 22, is looked forward to with much interest, as on that evening the President, Sister Gilkes, will pay her official visit. The degree will be conferred during the evening.

Just a reminder—

The War Services Unit of Unity Rebekah Lodge No. 26 are holding a Maytime tea on Wednesday afternoon, May 30, at the home of the Noble Grand, Sister Olive Graham, from 3:00 until 6:00 o'clock. It is hoped that all interested Rebekahs and friends will take this opportunity of renewing friendships over the tea cups.—C.E.H.

Dominion Rebekah Lodge Activities

Dominion Rebekah Lodge No. 41, Lethbridge, held their regular meeting on April 26. In the absence of the Noble Grand, Sister Gay Rea, V.G., presided, with Sister Isabelle Nuttall, P.N.G., officiating as Vice Grand.

An invitation from Faith Rebekah Lodge No. 93, to join with them in welcoming Sister Padgett, Assembly Warden, on her official visit, was received.

A committee to work in conjunction with committees from other city lodges was appointed in connection with the anniversary proclamation.

Dominion No. 41 is again happy to be in a position to purchase a bond in the Eighth Victory Loan drive.

As there will be no meeting on May 24, nomination of officers will be held at the next meeting, and for the same reason the degree will be conferred instead of on the last meeting of the month as is customary.

Sister Mary Rosewarn, P.N.G., is a hospital patient, having had the misfortune to fall and fracture her knee cap. Although this is very painful, "Polly," as she is familiarly known, is quite cheerful and is having the cast autographed by all who visit her.

Sister Amelia Marlow, P.N.G., has recently undergone a major operation, but we hope she will soon be well enough to have visitors. Sister Nellie Dupen, P.N.G., is also in hospital but improving. There were so many reported sick at the last meeting we could fill our whole report with nothing else, but these are really more seriously ill than the others.

Sister Jane Henderson, P.N.G., had a pleasant surprise last week-end when her son, John, who has been overseas since August, 1940, arrived home unannounced.

The secretary is taking subscriptions to the "Alberta Odd Fellow." Be sure to see her and have yours renewed now.—R.M.

Pageant Feature Lodge Gathering

The third anniversary of Colonsay, Sask., Rebekah Lodge No. 126 was celebrated on April 17, at a regular meeting, with N.G. Anne Gray in charge.

During the order of good and welfare, a tableau was presented entitled "Road to Friendship," with eight sisters taking part—Sister Edna Pendleton reading the course of the tableau, Sisters W. Willard, N. Kirk, R. Morgan, A. Pentdleton, V. Rosher, G. Rosher and I. Harris. Four of the sisters carried the emblem of the Rebekah degree while three sisters formed the three links, representing Friendship, Love and Truth, with Sister L. McKenzie standing in the rear displaying the flag of our country.

The tableau was well presented and very impressive.

On Saturday, May 7, the Colonsay Rebekah Lodge held a birthday tea in the community hall, marking the third anniversary of the lodge.

About eighty ladies were present in response to invitations issued by the lodge members. These were very original in the fact that pieces of green and pink tissue paper were sewed in open links.

All were requested to place their donation inside the open link and later each one pinned her link through her neighbor's link, forming a continuous chain.

Noble Grand Anne Gray was in charge of an interesting program consisting of a pageant entitled the "Garden of Life."

The stage was decorated with plants to represent a garden and as each one taking part placed a flower in a vase, Sister Anne Gray described the tableau in progress by reading fitting parts for the stages of life portrayed.

Sister Julia McNab and little daughter Shirley represented "Childhood" while Mrs. Peters and Sister Grace Rosher sang "Cradle Song."

Ivale and Shirley McKenzie represented and sang "School Days."

Avis Blachford as youth recited "Vitae Lampada."

The age of marriage was represented by Mary Lou Shier as bride, with Louise Garrett and Lorraine Josephson as attendants while Sister Edna Pendleton sang "Alone for You."

Sister Edith Hoshal and infant daughter Marlyn took the part of "Motherhood." Sister Anne Gray gave a reading, "Mother's Hands."

Mrs. H. Blachford, who was dressed in black and her hair being white, portrayed "Grandmother" very effectively, while the audience sang "Memories."

At the close of the pageant, a ceremony of lighting three candles on birthday cake was performed by Sisters I. Harris, W. Willard, V. Rosher and A. Pendleton.

Luncheon was served on lace covered tables decorated in pink and green.

Sister A. Gray proposed the toast "To the King," and the audience sang the National Anthem. Sister E. Harris proposed a toast to our country and Sister K. Davis responded with a reading, "The Land of the Maple."

Sister K. Chatfield proposed a toast to the Church, and Sister Downer sang two verses of the hymn "The Church One Foundation." Sister R. Morgan proposed a toast to the fraternity and the audience sang, "The More We Get Together."

Sister Davies had charge of the register. Cut flowers were presented to Mrs. John Folk and little Deirdre Downer, whose birthdays were nearest to the birthday of the lodge, April 20.

Many of the guests expressed the opinion that this had been one of the outstanding festivities held in Colonsay. During the three years that Colonsay Rebekah Lodge has been in operation it has nearly doubled its membership.

HEART'S TREASURE

It isn't the things you hold in your hands

But the things you hold in your heart,

That mould your life and make it complete

And help you to do your part.

It isn't the gold of material worth

That makes life a beautiful thing;

But the keeping of Friendship, Love and Truth

In a heart that has learned to sing!
